

"THE DAYLIGHT STORE"

LATE SEASON BARGAINS!

The cool wet season has left us with too many summer goods and we will put the knife in early to

CLEAR OUR COUNTERS OF HOT-WEATHER FABRICS

50c and 35c values in Voiles, Tissues, etc., on sale at.....25c
25c Crepes, Voiles and Batistes on sale at.....15c
15c Tissues, Crepes, Batistes, etc.,.....10c

It will pay you to walk down the aisle in our Drygoods Dep't.

Closing Out Our Millinery Department
Untrimmed Shapes Up to $3.50 values on sale at.....98c
Up to $1.50 values on sale at.....49c

American Clothing House

The Good Clothes Store

Oxfords now at Black & Arnold.

Bee hives and supplies at Logan-Moore Lbr. Yard, Butler, Mo.

Big stock overalls, Black & Arnold.

John Browning, of eastern Bates, was a business visitor to Butler Thursday.

W. D. Burrage, of Kansas City, is spending a few days in this city visiting his friend, Walter Lynch.

Overalls all sizes, 75c, $1. Khaki pants $1.00, $1.50, Black & Arnold.

J. B. Walton, of the Walton Trust Company, was a Kansas City visitor the first of the week.

Palm Beach suits, Black & Arnold.

The trial of Dr. Clark Hyde for the murder of Col. Swope in Kansas City, has again been postponed.

Mens odd pants, Black & Arnold.

Miss Alta Brown, of the Sam'l Levy Mercantile Company's sales force, spent Sunday in Kansas City.

Womens white silk hats 50c, mens silk hats 50c, Black & Arnold.

Jesse Doolittle, cashier of the Farmers Bank of Foster, was in the city transacting business Saturday.

J. C. Hargis, a prominent attorney of Kansas City, was transacting business in this city one day last week.

Mrs. J. O. Rogers left the first of the week for Ohio where she expects to spend the summer visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dewese, of the Appleton City neighborhood, were Butler visitors one day the last of the week.

Gardner Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith, who has been attending the State University at Columbia, is home for the summer.

Herbert WeMott left Monday for Vale, Oregon, where he expects to spend some time and if he is satisfied with the country he may conclude to make that his future home. His mother, Mrs. Arthur WeMott, accompanied him to Kansas City, where she will visit her son, Theodore.

F. M. Paddock, of Fayetteville, Ark., a former resident of Bates county, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Price the last of the week.

J. W. Darby spent a few days in Kansas City the last of the week. The Squire did not say whether he went to hear Billy Sunday, but of course he did.

A. H. Loyd, the Foster blacksmith, was a business visitor to Butler Saturday. Mr. Loyd was the first blacksmith in the town, moving there when the town was founded, in 1880.

Boys overalls 50c, Black & Arnold.

J. C. Maxey and family, of Johnstown, moved to town the first of the week and are at home in the Florence property on Ohio street. Mr. Maxey is a letter carrier out of the Butler post office.

Wanted: Retired business man or farmer to solicit orders in Bates County, for ornamental trees, shrubs, roses, etc. Commissions paid weekly. Will contract for all or part time service. Brown Brothers Nurseries, 34-1t Rochester, N. Y.

Misses Judith and Corintha Gilbert, of Nevada, arrived in this city the last of the week to spend a few days visiting at the home of Miss Edna Clarke. Owing to the washout in the Marmaton river bottoms their visit was a trifle longer than they had intended.

C. C. Day arrived in the city Sunday from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to visit a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Day. Mrs. Day and daughter, Dorothy, have been visiting relatives in this city for some time. They returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. C. A. Bolen and sister, Miss Ada May Thomas, left Sunday for Eureka Springs, Ark., where they expect to remain about a month with their mother, Mrs. James Thomas, who is spending the summer there for the benefit of her health.

Mrs. M. C. Arnold returned Friday from a visit with relatives in Independence, Odessa and Kansas City. While in the latter city she heard Bill Sunday several times and like all who hear him, says that he is fine.

Childrens sandals, Black & Arnold.

C. S. Ewin is a Vernon county visitor this week.

J. W. Choate left Monday for North Missouri on business for the Walton Trust Co.

J. W. Stephens and J. M. Howard, of Adrian, were county seat visitors Wednesday.

Pete McCook, constable of Deepwater township, was a county seat visitor Friday.

Everett Zwahlen and family motored up to Kansas City Saturday, returning Sunday.

Something new, boys pants $1.00 with a six months guarantee against holes, Black & Arnold.

Dr. T. C. Robinson, of Amsterdam, was in the city on business one day the last of the week.

Mrs. J. F. Ludwick, who has been visiting her son, Frank, in Kansas City, has returned home.

Mrs. John Yable, of Horton, Kansas, is in the city visiting at the home of her father, F. C. Smith.

"High Art" suits wear longer and hold shape better, Black & Arnold.

J. W. Holloway spent a few days in Kansas City the first of the week visiting his sons, Floyd and Verne.

Mrs. C. C. Catterlin and niece, Miss Marie Ray, visited Mrs. E. L. Procter at Nevada one day the last of the week.

Smart styles for smart people at Black & Arnold.

Mrs. J. W. Holloway left Saturday for Independence and Kansas City, where she will spend some time with relatives.

Butler was well represented at Rich Hill Thursday night. A number of young folks motored down to hear the band concert.

Mesdames J. R. White, Ida Sloan, Wm. Vogel and Miss Lucile Bailey, of Rich Hill, were Butler visitors Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Smith and daughter, Miss Myrtle, returned Friday from a visit to Mrs. Smith's brother, R. W. James, at Rich Hill.

Boys suits with extra pair pants, belt and cap to match, all for $5.00. Just see them, Black & Arnold.

Mrs. John McKissick, of Kansas City, is spending a couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frank, southwest of town.

Dr. R. E. Crabtree has purchased the Cannon property on East Dakota street and will occupy it as soon as some necessary repairs are made on the building.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Moore and baby, of Kansas City, were in the city the last of the week visiting Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. Chas. Flak, and other relatives.

Misses Ora Newsome, who is a teacher in the Benton school in Kansas City, is home to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Newsome.

Claude Coe, of Kansas City, came down Friday to spend a day or two with his wife and little son, who are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam W. Davis.

Miss Mary Braden, who teaches in the Kensington school in Kansas City, arrived in the city Sunday to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Braden.

Cliff See, of Independence, Missouri, was in the city last week visiting relatives. Mr. See is employed by a large firm of architects as a superintendent of construction.

President Wilson has issued a proclamation designating Wednesday, June 14, as Flag Day. The day when patriotic American citizens should throw Old Glory to the breeze.

L. C. Miller, of Kansas City, was down the last of the week visiting his parents, Judge and Mrs. G. C. Miller. Judge Miller's health has been very poor for some time.

For sale at the Geo. Latham farm 8 1-2 miles southeast of Butler, a yearling jack. Will make a 15-hand jack. Cheap if bought at once. 35-1t Frank Kupel.

Manager Ellis, of the Butler base ball team has secured a new catcher from the strong semi-professional team at Mineral, Kansas. He will play in the game against Appleton City next Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Talbert and Judge A. B. Owen are attending a convention of the Christian churches of Missouri at Sedalia this week. Judge Owen is a delegate from the Butler church.

Mrs. Sterling Bolen and Mrs. W. P. Sharp, of east of town visited friends in Rich Hill the last of the week.

Judge C. J. Henry and Prosecuting Attorney D. C. Chastain are attending the Democratic convention in St. Louis.

H. O. Maxey left Monday to attend the Democratic convention in St. Louis. Mr. Maxey is a delegate from this district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Trimble and daughter, Hortense, left Wednesday for Excelsior Springs, where Mr. Trimble will attend a meeting of the State Pharmaceutical Association.

Mrs. Joe Fitzlin, Mrs. L. D. Keefer and daughter, Grace, of Kansas City, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jenkins the last of the week. Mrs. Fitzlin was formerly Miss Sally Hays, of this city.

Cy Ward, who has been very sick for the last three months, is able to be out and was down town last week for the first time, but is still very weak. His many friends hope for his early return to health.

Katherine, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Caldwell, while at play at the home of her parents on East Dakota street Wednesday morning fell from the porch and broke one of her arms just above the elbow.

Next Monday the Electric Theatre will present that high class Red Feather feature film "The Lords of High Decision," with Cyril Scott in the star part. This is a play of high finance, a rich coal baron trying to wreck a small competitor who gets in his way. The scenes are laid in the coal mines of Pennsylvania and the plot is full of action from start to finish, and don't forget that the price of admission is only five cents.

Frank Allen last week sold his residence on West Mill street to John S. Krinn of the Farmers Bank. We understand that Mr. Allen has purchased the Cassidy place on South Mechanic street and will move there in a short time.

Among the appreciated callers at this office Monday was D. D. Dalton, of northwest of town. Mr. Dalton moved to Bates county from Jackson county about a year ago and likes it fine. He says that land in Jackson county has gotten too high priced for farming purposes.

Walter C. Hyatt, of Seattle, Washington, arrived Monday afternoon to visit his father, J. T. Hyatt, of Summit township. Walter has just returned from Chicago, where he was a delegate to the Progressive convention. After a short visit he will return to Seattle.

Dr. R. R. Gloyd of this city has been notified by Dr. D. F. Luckey State Veterinarian that he has been issued papers entitling him to do interstate work. This consists of the inspection of stock for shipment to points outside Missouri.

W. G. Mehaffey, of Pleasant Gap, has been in the city the last week taking treatment for a severe case of kidney trouble. Mr. Mehaffey has been confined to his home since last February and his many friends will be glad to know that he is improving fast and that his entire recovery is hoped for.

T. C. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. C. W. Schultz, left the first of the week for Kansas City where they will visit for a few days. From there Mrs. Schultz will return to her home in Fairbury, Nebraska, and Mr. Robinson will go to Wisconsin, where he is engaged in making maps of counties in that state.

W. A. Baker, of Pleasant Gap, the well known breeder of fine hogs and cattle, was in Butler the latter part of the week shipping out a fine young herd header to a prominent Marysville breeder. This is the third shipment of Poland China hogs Mr. Baker has made to this same party.

The Times good friend, Will Jackson, who lives about four miles west of town, made this office a pleasant call Friday. Mr. Jackson is one of Bates counties most progressive and up-to-date farmers. He owns one of the best 300 acre farms in this section. He has 70 acres of corn which he thinks will make a fine crop.

Chas. E. Booi, of Danforth, Illinois, in renewing for the Times says, "I am always glad to get The Times, as it is like a long letter from home. I am interested in Bates county, having two boys living between Amoret and Amsterdam. Am going to build a new barn on my farm out there this summer. It will have a concrete floor; will be 40 by 45 feet square and 24 feet high."

Mrs. Anna Lyle Hill and daughter, Miss Thelma, will leave the last of the week for Kansas City, where they will spend the summer with relatives. In the fall they will go to Columbia, where Mrs. Hill will teach and Miss Thelma will enter the University. Mrs. Hill is one of the most popular teachers of the Butler High School and she will be greatly missed by the pupils as she was always their friend as well as teacher.

The Friday night's band concert was attended by the usual big crowd which was rewarded by hearing one of the best concerts of the season. After the concert Arthur Wadell and his bride, who were standing near, were "captured" by the band boys, who had procured a wheelbarrow in which Mrs. Wadell was induced to ride around the square with her husband furnishing the motive power and the band playing all sorts of appropriate tunes.

High Water Upsets Train Service.

The heavy rains of the latter part of last week caused the streams in this part of the country to overflow the bottoms, doing considerable damage to crops and seriously disarranging train schedules.

Tracks in the Marmaton bottom north of Nevada was washed out and the Missouri Pacific turned their trains back from Rich Hill. Grand River near Archie was out of banks and for a time it was feared that the tracks would go out. Mails were delayed, only one train a day from Kansas City being run on Monday and Tuesday.

Company B Now a Part of the Regular Army.

Capt. Ed S. Clark, of the local military company, has received orders and the necessary blanks to make the company a part of the regular army. Most of the men have taken the new oath as required by the new Federalization act. Under the new law the enlisted men will draw one dollar for each drill attended. The officers will receive 25 per cent of the regular army pay.

At the regular meeting last Thursday night Harry Ellis was elected second lieutenant. Mr. Ellis has had three years of experience as a non-commissioned officer in the regular army and will make a very efficient officer.

The new standard of physical requirements is rather high and already several men have had to be dropped to the for not coming up to the requirements and new men will be enlisted at once to take their places.

Co. B was organized in 1888 by General Clark, who was the first captain, and has always held first rank among the military companies of the state. It served in the Spanish-American war as part of the Second Regiment Missouri Volunteers under the command of Captain V. L. Johnson of this city and was regarded as one of the best regiments in the service.

Frazier Markets Toppo Stockers.

E. D. Frazier of Drexel, Mo., was on the Kansas City market recently with a load of stockers which brought $8.10, around the top of the market. Mr. Frazier is a man of much business. His herd of Poland Chinas and the heavy demand he enjoys is large enough to take all the time of one ordinary man. But Ed Frazier is not an ordinary man by any manner of means, and that is the reason why he can handle a large herd, feed a lot of cattle, deal in Percherons and Jacks and operate a large farm and still have a little time for recreation. However, of late he has been working night and day. He reports the heaviest demand and the best trade he has ever had on his Polands and for the past few months has shipped out from five to ten head each week.—Poland China Journal.

Allen-Nafus.

Hugh Seymour Allen, of Eldorado Springs, and Miss Alice Irene Nafus were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nafus, in this city.

Rev. W. S. Macrea, of Knobnoster, an old friend of both parties, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nafus and during her residence of about a year in this city has made many friends who will wish her a long and happy married life.

The groom is a young man of many excellent qualities. He is an electrical engineer and holds a good position in Eldorado Springs.

After a short bridal tour the young couple will be at home in Eldorado Springs.

I. O. O. F. Memorial.

Sunday was the memorial day for the Odd Fellows and the Daughters of Rebekah. They met in their hall in the Fraternal Inn about one o'clock where they donned their regalia and led by the Butler concert band marched to Oak Hill cemetery where the beautiful ritualistic ceremonies of the order was carried out. The graves of about 40 Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah were decorated. There were several out of town members of the order that participated in the ceremonies.

Marriage Licenses

Henry Thompson....Butler, Mo.,
Nellie Thomas.....Butler, Mo.
Arthur R. Waddell..Butler, Mo.,
Ruby Louise Mead....Butler, Mo.
James C. Shockey...Rich Hill, Mo.,
Katie B. Wetzel...Texas City, Tex.
A. B. Simpson....Stafford, Kas.,
Minnie Frankfield..Foster, Mo.
Hugh S. Allen..Eldorado Springs,
Alice Irene Nafus....Butler, Mo.

FOR SALE.

1 pair 3-year-old mules.
3 Angus bulls, 15 to 17 months old, registered.
8 second hand buggies.
1 Sayers & Seovill run about, rubber tire.
Also full line of Sayers & Seovill young men's buggies.
An Upright piano, good condition, for trade.
McFARLAND & SONS.
35-1t

FIRESTONE

Red side wall Black Tread in stock at all times.

Get yours at

NEWLON'S GARAGE